What is this product?

The product is an investment share of a sub-fund of a qualified investor fund in the legal form of a joint stock company with variable registered capital.

Investment objectives and investment policy

- The aim of the new Fund is to achieve long-term stable return, both by earning income and capital growth.
- The investment objective of the Fund is to increase continuously the value of invested funds, in particular through investment in the securities of investment funds managed by the Management Company, interests in limited companies, real-estate, debts and additionally in shares and similar investment securities, bonds and money market instruments.
- The Fund does not pursue any specific investment strategy. In addition to investments yielding regular income, it may take advantage of short-term opportunities or, for example, provide capital to companies and projects at an initial stage of development.
- The Fund does not intend to follow any index or benchmark. A return on investment in the Fund is not guaranteed.
- The Fund was established for an indefinite period of time. With respect to this, there is no date of maturity of investment.
- The Fund can be terminated on grounds stipulated by law. The Fund can be terminated on other than legal grounds by decision of the Management Company, as a result of which an investor may not be able to hold the investment in the Fund for the recommended holding period. No warranty or guarantee is made as regards the possibility of an investor to remain in the Fund.

Intended investor

- The Fund is intended for qualified investors with very advanced knowledge of investing. Since the recommended investment horizon of the Fund is at least 5 years, investors must be willing to accept the risk of a temporary loss; thus, the Fund is suitable for investors who can leave the capital invested for at least such period of time.

What are the risks and what could I get in return?

Risk profile

We have classified the product as 5 out of 7, which is the third highest risk class. The risk indicator assumes that you keep the product for at least the recommended holding period, i.e. 5 years. The actual risk connected with the investment varies significantly according to the holding period (period of investment) and if the investment horizon is not observed, the actual risk may be significantly higher and you may get back much less if you terminate the investment early. The investment carries the risk of loss of all of the invested capital. More information about an early termination and the recommended holding period is provided below.

- The scenarios shown illustrate how your investment could perform. You can compare them with the scenarios of other products.
- The scenarios presented are an estimate of future performance. What you get will vary depending on how the market performs and how long you keep the investment/product.
- The stress scenario shows what you could get back in extreme market circumstances and it does not take into account a situation when we are unable to pay you.
- This product cannot be cashed in easily. This means that it is difficult to estimate how much you would get back if you cashed in before the end of the recommended holding period. You will either be unable to cash in early or you will have to pay high costs or take a large loss if you do so.
- The figures shown include all the costs of the product itself, but may not include all the costs that you pay to your advisor or distributor. The figures do not take into account your personal tax situation, which may also affect how much you get back.
- Be aware of liquidity risk. The Fund is obliged to redeem your investment shares according to your choice within 4, 12 or 24 months of receiving a request for redemption of investment shares. Depending on the selected redemption period, you may be charged a redemption fee (an exit charge, see "How long should I hold the investment? Can I take my money out early?").
- The summary risk-profile indicator does not include other risks associated with the investment: Operational risk stemming from potential deficiencies or failure of internal processes, the risk of human factor or failure due to external circumstances. Settlement risk, which is theoretical possibility that a transaction will not be settled as anticipated, e.g. due to counterparty default.
- Be aware of currency risk. The Fund invests in investment assets situated in the European Union and therefore its performance also depends on the exchange rate between the currency of the country where the investment is situated and the Czech koruna, in which the product is denominated.
- If the issuer of the underlying assets cannot meet its obligations, you might lose all of your investments.
